Solution To Woes On Tax Structure Due

Randall County commissioners will discuss in open session Monday their tax situation and The News has learned that county officials may be considering the use of school district tax information to solve part of their problem.

Under the stress of adverse publicity concerning the current county tax structure and facing the possibility the structure itself may be illegal, commissioners have not discussed in open session how to solve their problems.

Commissioner Bill Butler told County Judge Woody Pond during Monday afternoon's regular session to put the tax matter on the agenda for discussion at their next meeting.

"Then, I'll give you the Butler version," Butler said.

Legality of the tax structure, which provides breaks for rural and subdivision residents, has been questioned recently even after commissioners stated publicly they plan to revamp the tax structure to make it more equitable.

Judge Pond announced as long ago as three months that the county tax structure would be re-examined and realigned. County tax assessor Mrs. Audrey Bruse has gone on record in favor of a full re-evaluation of all property in the county, an effort which has not been made in the last 20 years.

The News learned, though, that some county officials are considering the possibility of using the 100 per cent valuation from the current school district tax rolls in the county tax system for rural homes. The school district tax rolls were updated through revaluation in 1967.

If the school district 100 per cent valuation is used by the county, rural home taxes would rise considerably.

In other business Monday, commissioners appointed John Fulgenzi and Paul Lindsey to serve as a committee of two to work with the City of Canyon on a new contract for fire protection for rural county residents.

Lindsey and Fulgenzi negotiated with city commissioners last summer to come up with the current fire contract which calls for the county to pay a set annual fee to cover the costs of sending Canyon fire trucks to rural areas.

Bill Foil Resigns As FBC Pastor

Bill Foil, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Canyon for the past four years and four months, tendered his resignation Sunday at the close of the morning worship service.

The church elected Darold Baldwin, current associate pastor of the church, as acting pastor. Philip Langen, chairman of the deacons, was elected moderator of the church.

Foil, who will continue to make his home in Canyon or the Canyon area, will enter a "multi-ministry." This will include work in the area of evangelism, camps and Bible conferences. Foil said that he had prayed about this new ministry and feels that it is God's will. He said that he is excited about the possibilities of this type of ministry.

He has already received invitations for seven evangelistic meetings. Tentative plans have been laid for a mission-evangelism trip to the Northwestern portion of the United States.

County Architect Given Go-Ahead Even Though Legality Questioned

County commissioners told their architect Monday to release specifications to potential bidders for construction of a new South Amarillo annex in spite of contentions that the construction will be illegal.

Commissioners also learned Monday the new annex may cost more than the $300,000 they had anticipated due to skyrocketing building prices.

Art Vaughan, Amarillo architect for the building, told The News he believes the contentions of an Amarillo television station that the county cannot legally build an annex in that city will have no impact on the thinking of construction firms who might bid on the project.

After an hour-long meeting in Vaughan's offices, commissioners gave their final okay to the plans.

"Do you want to release these plans in view of the publicity we're getting or do you want to hold off?" Vaughan asked commissioners.

"When our legal counsel tells us to do something else, we'll do something else," Commissioner Bill Butler said. "I think the people in South Amarillo ought to have some facilities, too. I say go ahead with them."

"Go ahead and release them," said County Judge Woody Pond.

The Amarillo television station has contended that two sections of the Texas civil statutes put restraints on the types of annex buildings which can be constructed. Dist. Atty. George Dowlen has requested opinions from the office of the state attorney general to help make a final determination on the legality of the construction commissioners contemplate.

Earlier in the Monday meeting, commissioners learned the hard facts about construction costs.

"Are we still within the budget (of $300,000)," asked Commissioner John Fulgenzi.

"I doubt it but we can't really say," Vaughan said. "There's so much scare in this thing now. We're lost on how to estimate one of these things."

"That's a joyful tiding," Butler said.

Vaughan said he predicts building costs will continue to soar.

He noted that one expert has estimated that buildings which were budgeted at $30 to $35 per square foot to build are now costing between $35 and $45 to build.

He said his firm estimated the cost of the annex at about $30 per square foot.

"What I'm saying is it might go up $5 to $8 (per square foot)," Vaughan said. "We've done everything we can do. We took the less expensive systems to begin with."

Gardens—Victory Over Inflation

Victory in war has seemingly given way to victory over inflation as Canyon residents take up a pastime which sustained them 30 years ago.

Nary a homeowner in Canyon is without a small garden this year as the trend toward home gardening increases in the city.

County Agent John Brazzil said the number of gardens in the city has been increasing for the last two to three years, but this year he said the trend has really caught on.

"It's very obvious this year and more so than I've ever seen," he said. "There's as much participation and enthusiasm as we had with the old victory gardens."

Brazzil said while city folks are putting in gardens, many for the first time, rural residents are expanding their garden areas.

The county agent said several factors have probably led to the increased popularity of backyard gardening in Canyon.

One is concern over prices in the grocery store.

The energy crisis may have had some effect, too, Brazzil said, since people have tended to stay at home more than usual. The garden provides a vehicle to release excess energy.

A possible trend toward family-oriented activities may have impacted on the increase in gardening interest, he said.

For Steven and Brian McMinn, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jaggers of Canyon, gardening is hardly a chore.

The two boys said this week their father rototilled the family backyard and they planted the seed for a mammoth garden which they hope will produce everything from grapes to green beans.

The boys, who are also responsible for the weeding of the garden, planted cucumbers, tomatoes, lettuce, corn, blackeyed peas, radishes, carrots, peanuts, rhubarb, grapes, English peas, strawberries and on and on.

It's the second year of Gardening is becoming a favorite pastime for Canyon residents. Brian McMinn, 12, weeds the family plot during a lazy summer morning, top photo. Onions replace clothes on the line in one family backyard as they wait for the large vegetables to dry before using. Someone tried to plant a garden of a different sort near the library at West Texas State University. Police officials found the marijuana plant in right photo growing near the library and harvested the immature crop. The plants are now growing "for observation purposes" at the police station.

Bicentennial Title Official Here

Randall County and Canyon are now official American Revolution Bi-Centennial communities.

U.S. Rep. Bob Price announced Tuesday the American Revolution Bi-Centennial Administration has afforded official designation to both groups.

County and city officials received the official bicentennial flags during ceremonies Wednesday night before the gala opening of the musical-drama "TEXAS" in Palo Duro Canyon State Park.

Twenty-six other cities and counties received official flags during the ceremonies.

Dr. Duane Guy, chairman of the Randall County-Canyon bicentennial committee, had awaited official word on the designation nervously since last week.

The Wednesday night ceremony was the official act of designation and Guy said the local committee will officially resume planning and other activities for the nation's 200th birthday today.

Some of the local committee's plans are already in the mill and others will require financing before they can be accomplished.

The local committee has already begun efforts to renovate and highlight the old T-Anchor Ranchhouse which is just north of Canyon on land owned by West Texas State University.

Another project already underway is an oral history program

Wheat Harvest Shows Low Yield On Few Acres

Wheat harvest is in full swing in Randall County, but yields are poor and the number of acres cut is well under the number last year.

A 9-month drought severely cut back on wheat for county farmers, farmers who made record crops and yields last summer.

"Yields have been disappointingly low, although not surprisingly low," County Agent John Brazzil said.

Brazzil said wheat farmers expected poor yields this summer due to the dry stretch from September until May. In fact, there is virtually no dryland wheat crop this year in the county. Usually, acreages on dryland outnumber acreages on irrigated farmland in the area.

People who allow your telephone to ring only three or four times before they "hang up" are a nuisance.

Brazzil said the irrigated wheat being harvested is also testing at a light weight.

The county wheat crop faced tough prospects last fall when dry weather set in just before the crop was planted. Many farmers struggled to have enough water to plant.

Then the crop was somewhat decimated by greenbugs as they moved from sorghum fields onto the wheat.

Dry weather ruined prospects for the dryland crop and many farmers early in the spring were taking

FROM THE CANYON RIM

by Troy Martin

I heard the two young men who uncovered Watergate talk on television this week. They have just written a book about their exploits in the case.

The two barely had the tolerance of their editors and every roadblock conceivable was thrown in their path.

They work for The Washington Post and I'm no admirer of editorial policies of either The Post or The New York Times. Those two papers are much too liberal to suit my taste.

However, they have been adversaries of most administrations in Washington and I think this does serve a purpose.

Newspaper people and government officials at all levels simply must accept that they are natural adversaries if the interests of the people are to be served. If they can accept this on a professional instead of a personal basis, so much the better.

I realize that some aspects of the Watergate case have descended to the point of vendetta on the part of some news people and newspapers. I do not defend this. "Leaked" news is deplorable if it is printed without thorough investigation.

However, corruption in high places in the administration is indisputable. Laying it bare has been a service to the country.

Several important people on the Nixon team have been sentenced for wrong doing, not because they were convicted by a jury but because they pleaded guilty to felonious charges. The former vice president, who had traveled the length and breadth of America proclaiming himself the all-American boy, pled nolo contendre, equivalent to a plea of guilty, to the sleezy crime of graft. Their downfall cannot be laid at the door of biased, prejudiced and unfair news coverage.

I am sorry because this newspaper supported the election and re-election of President Nixon. I still hope that he can extract himself from this mess and somehow run the country for the remainder of his term.

If he is not able to do so, if he is impeached by the House and convicted by the Senate (I do not believe he should resign under any circumstances thus leaving the country in doubt forever.) he should not blame the news media. Even if he is not personally culpable, he picked the men around him and the buck stops in the oval room.

The two things I fear most from national news media is grinding axes for themselves and sheer laziness.

Much of the national media is ultra liberal, reporters having been trained that way in many of our great colleges and universities over the past three decades.

There is a tendency to take the attitude that public funds can be poured on any fire of distress and quench it immediately. There is a chilling tendency to undercut the need for a strong defense while our adversaries are arming to the teeth.

Lazy reporters are most to be feared. They take self-serving "news" releases from public relations people, paid to make their bosses look good, and present them almost unedited as objective news.

God help us if the government and news media ever go into collusion. This has happened in all dictatorships.

Can you imagine Pravda filing court action to force an open meeting of the politboro?

Winston Churchill, himself a reporter, summed it up pretty well when he said:

"One little mouse of truth gets loose in the country and dictators tremble in fear for they cannot stand the truth."

News Brief

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Wilcox had "Father's Day" dinner at the home of their son, Lee Wilcox, in Amarillo.

The Stull family, l. to r., Chris, Kathy, Mrs. Phyllis Stull, Ted Stull and Kenny, enjoy Canyon living. They have recently moved to Canyon from Mt. Pleasant, Iowa.

New Family Likes Canyon Life

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Stull and their three children, Kenny, age 14, Kathy, age 18, and Chris, age 21, have recently moved to Canyon. They live at 3202 Linda Lane.

The Stull family moved from Mt. Pleasant, Iowa. Like Canyon, Mt. Pleasant is a small town with a college located there.

Stull said that the family chose Canyon because they like a small town, both Stull and his wife grew up in small towns. He said that the family drove over the town and liked it. The family heard that the school system in Canyon was good and having two children ready for college, the university assisted in their choice.

Stull said that it was easier for him to drive 40 miles to his work at Pantex one day a week than for the children to drive 30 miles or so every day. Stull is in a car pool.

Mrs. Stull said that food prices in Canyon were higher than the prices in Iowa. She said that clothes were cheaper in price here.

The family likes the Panhandle weather except for the dust storms and the wind. They said that after moving to Canyon, they awoke one morning to find the garbage can lids on top of their house.

The family said that people in Canyon had been nice and friendly to them.

The Stulls are members of the Episcopalian church.

Childs Retires From Army Career

John Childs, Canyon Chamber of Commerce president, retired after a 20-year career in the Army and has begun work at Canyon's First National Bank as assistant vice president, business and development officer.

Childs' out-processing from the Army came at Ft. Sill, Okla. He had served in the Army since 1953.

A native of Jacksonville, Tex., Childs received a B.S. degree from Texas A&M University in 1953. He was commissioned through the ROTC program and entered the Army as a second lieutenant of infantry in 1953. Initial assignments included tours as student at the U.S. Army Infantry School and duty as an infantry platoon leader.

A tour as infantry unit commander followed in Germany. Childs returned to a tour as a student and tactics instructor in the Infantry School and then went to the Army Language School as a Persian language student. He was also a company commander with the 101st Airborne Division.

In 1962, Childs was assigned to the Republic of Vietnam as a battalion advisor to the Vietnamese Army. He returned to the states for a tour as an infantry career assignment officer in Washington.

Childs returned to Vietnam for a second tour as a battalion commander in the 101st Airborne Division and also served as personnel staff officer in the headquarters of the U.S. Army in Vietnam.

Upon returning to the states, he was appointed professor of military science at Allen Military Academy in Bryan, Tex., and later as professor of military science at WTSU. He has been at the university since August 1970.

Childs received many awards and decorations during his service tenure, including the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Legion of Merit, the Bronze Star Medal for valor, the Air Medal, Army Commendation Medal, the Republic of Vietnam Cross of Gallantry, the Combat Infantryman's Badge and the Parachutists Badge.

Childs received a masters degree from George Washington University in 1968. He retired from the Army with the rank of lieutenant colonel.

Since moving to Canyon, Childs has been actively involved in community affairs. He has been a director of the chamber of commerce, director of the Canyon Rotary Club, district chairman of the Boy Scouts, county campaign chairman for the American Cancer Society, and is a deacon in the First Baptist Church.

He, his wife, Thelma Ruth, and two sons, Stephen and Charles, live at 1409 Creekmere in Canyon.

Firework Sales Worry Officials

A federal commission's refusal this week to ban the sale of fireworks for the 4th of July holidays left local officials right where they were last year at this time — worried.

The U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission declined to ban the sale of fireworks at a Tuesday meeting and delayed hearings until after the 4th of July melee.

With the refusal to ban the annual hazards, local officials renewed their pleas for local residents to abstain from using fireworks this year and set out another warning about the dangers involved both legally and physically.

Chief of Police Al Stewart stressed that the sale, or explosion of fireworks inside the city limits is strictly prohibited by city ordinance.

The ordinance states that fireworks may not be fired in the city and provides liability for persons who fire off fireworks or allow fireworks to be fired on their property. It also provides liability for parents who allow their children to fire fireworks.

Stewart admits the city police have trouble enforcing the ordinances because of the very nature of the fireworks business.

Fire Chief Jack Jennings warned of the potential threat to life and limb of fireworks and asked that residents refrain from firing the firecrackers.

He warned, too, of the dangers of setting fires with the items.

Jennings said wet conditions on the county's rangelands could mean fewer potential fires in the rural areas.

Nance Ranch Barn Destroyed By Fire

A barn, estimated at $30,000 when it was built 30 years ago, burned to the ground early Tuesday morning at the Nance Ranch. The ranch is the property of WTSU. It was donated to WTSU by Mrs. Lovell Jones.

The alarm on the 50 feet by 75 feet barn was turned in at 2:30 a.m. Tuesday morning. Four trucks from the Canyon Fire Department responded to the call. The alarm was turned in 15 minutes before the fire department was notified, according to Jack Jennings, fire chief.

Don Beerwinkle, who lives 100 yards from the barn, did not know about the fire until 2:40 a.m. when he received a call from neighbors telling him of the blaze. Beerwinkle said that he had no idea what caused the blaze. He said that none of his crew had been in the barn for the past three or four days.

Dr. Charles Smallwood, dean of the Department of Agriculture at WTSU was out of town and could not be reached for comment.

Special Services, A Vital Service To Canyon Schools

Beginning as one of twelve pilot programs four years ago, the Special Services program of Canyon Independent School District has continued with a steady growth in size and service.

The program, funded by the state, is the only program in the state of Texas that started with six, nine and twelve year olds. All other programs began with only two of the age groups. According to Mrs. Hazel Strickland, director of the program, Canyon began with the three age groups because of the desire to service all Canyon's young people in a shorter period of time.

The program now services children in the Canyon system from the time they are eligible for the first grade through the high school age. During this summer session there are 92 enrolled in the program at Rex Reeves Elementary School and 90 at Gene Howe Elementary.

Mrs. Strickland said that the program has grown larger than first anticipated because of the population growth of the Canyon school district. During the past year an average of 600 students were served by the program.

The Language and Learning Disabilities category of the Special Services program is the largest. According to Mrs. Strickland, one of every five to seven children have a learning problem of this type.

Students who participate in the LLD program are average or above average students who have a learning lag according to Mrs. Strickland. Mrs. Strickland said that the child in this category does not usually have a visual, hearing or intellectual problem. The problem, according to Mrs. Strickland, is the inability to process, store and/or express information. She said that this inability is manifest in a disability to spell, listen, think, talk, read, or write.

Increasing reading skills is a part of the special services program. Sound equipment is used to help the student on his level and to also free the instructor to work with others. The Special Services program majors on individual assistance.

The objective of LLD is to bridge the gap between potential, what the child is capable of doing, and actual performance, what he is doing.

A child in this program has more problems with reading than any other area according to Mrs. Strickland. The child is either a visual learner or an audio learner. The visual learner will listen selectively, an auditory learner may have 20-20 vision but his eyes may not work together.

If the child has the need, he is taken to the research room where he practices on activities that will remediate the problem. Every child in the program is assessed by a reviewing counsel to see if he has special needs. He is given a reading test and his comprehension is tested so that weak and strength areas may be evaluated.

"We begin with a strength area to help remediate the weak area," stated Mrs. Strickland. She stated that in the research room, every child is successful. She said that the instructor began on the level of the child and the child could succeed. This feeling of success was helpful in allowing the child to develop the desire to be a success in all that he undertakes.

In the research room, a set of non-academic activities are used to enable academic gain. "A failure in academic training may be failure at non-academic perception.

LLD does several things according to Mrs. Strickland. The first thing that the instructors attempt to accomplish is the evaluation of the child's activities that day by the child himself. The child is asked, "Are you pleased with what you did today?"

Mrs. Strickland said that for the first day or two of the program, the child answers that he is pleased with what he has done. After the initial contact with the program, the child begins to desire to do more. This is the successful motivating force of the program. The child learns to evaluate.

The second area that enables the program to help the child, is beginning at a level where the child can be successful.

Parents must give permission for their child to enter any phase of the special services program. If further testing, beyond the local school, is needed, the parents are again consulted.

LLD is only one of the programs in special services being used this summer. The speech handicapped category is for pupils with abnormality in speech or hearing which causes problems with articulation, rhythm, voice or oral language.

Special reading is for pupils whose evaluation has revealed evidence of a deficit or deficits in basic reading skills sufficient to affect academic progress. Their total intellectual functioning is average or above the general population.

The developmental program includes the emotionally disturbed and those with minimal brain injury. Classes in the developmental program are kept at a small number. Emotionally disturbed children are those whose emotional condition is medically and/or psychologically determined to be such that they cannot be adequately educated in the regular classroom. Pupils with minimal brain damage have learning difficulties directly attributable to an organic defect caused by a neurological condition and are unable to adjust to, or profit from, a regular classroom program.

Categories used during regular school terms other than those mentioned include educable mentally retarded, vocational education for the handicapped, vocational adjustment class and homebound instruction.

Those in the educable mentally retarded classes are pupils who reveal a reduced rate of intellectual development and level of academic achievement below that of their peer group due to deficits in all essential learning processes.

Vocational education for the handicapped is designed for students with handicaps which may prevent success in the regular junior high school curriculum. Vocational laboratory experiences are provided on campus for 14-16 year old boys and girls.

Vocational adjustment class is for pupils with handicaps which may prevent success in the regular senior high school curriculum. Classroom work station experiences are provided for boys and girls 16-21 years of age. This is a cooperative program between the school and the Texas Rehabilitation Commission.

Homebound is for pupils who have a diagnosis and recommendation by a physician stating that they will be homebound for at least four weeks.

Jumping rope is just one of the exercises used in the resource hut at Rex Reeves Elementary School in the Special Services program.

Special Services in the Canyon Independent School District combine games with the learning experience. Here the instructor assists the child in hitting the ball with the bat. This helps in eye-hand coordination.

ASTRIDE HIS HORSE, Chris Wood, 4, is getting ready for the summer production of "TEXAS" where he will be appearing as the youngest child actor on stage. Chris played the same role last season and "could hardly wait until the snows were gone so TEXAS would begin again."

Youngest 'TEXAS' Actor Likes Show

By LORENA MILLER

Chris Wood, who claims he is 4 fingers old, plays the role of Roscoe Tatum in the upcoming summer drama "TEXAS" which opened Wednesday in Palo Duro Canyon's Pioneer Amphitheatre.

Chris played the role last year and was so enthused with the activity of the show that he "just couldn't wait until the snow had come and gone" so that 'TEXAS' would resume.

In the summer show, Chris is the son of Rachel Tatum played by Miss Judy Willis of Canyon and Harrell (Pinkie) Floyd who plays the father of the Tatum brood.

Chris likes his "play acting" and claims that his Tatum sister, Amy Clinton of Amarillo, is a "real sister." In true life, Chris has a younger brother, Anthony, who is 14 months old and has inherited Chris' old stick horse to ride.

A dark haired good looking fellow, Chris is the eldest child of Steve and Linda Wood who reside at 2111 Second Avenue in Canyon. Both Steve and Linda were raised at Plainview where he earned his degree at Wayland Baptist College before moving here to work as a graduate student at the university. He is presently completing his thesis "An Analysis of the Production Problems of the First Eight Seasons of the Musical Drama 'TEXAS' " and also is serving as an assistant technical director for the outdoor drama.

Chris is an "unofficial member of the technical crew" and has spent many hours at the amphitheatre this summer helping paint and get things ready and in shape for "TEXAS" when the footlights are turned on for the first public performance of the 1974 season.

This year Chris will also serve as a "good public relations man for 'TEXAS' if he follows his pattern of last season," according to his mother. "He rode his stick horse up and down the street telling everyone to 'come to TEXAS' and then handed out folders to all the neighbors, too."

One of his favorite scenes is the "fire ballet," which he runs to see when he hears the musical cue.

Chris will also like the "plum picking" scenes in the show again this year because he has been with his mother while she has been busy at the sewing machine making some of the new costumes for it.

Mrs. Wood, (Linda) is working with the show as a member of the costume crew this season and is responsible for making about seven new dresses for the "plum" scene. She noted that each season one special set of costumes have been made new to add color and style to the show.

"The Indians are scary," commented Chris when asked what he liked about the show. With a shy smile he noted that the "Indians are like real" to him.

Conservationists Plan State Meet

Members of the board of the Palo Duro Soil and Water Conservation District laid initial plans Monday to host a statewide meeting of area conservationists next fall.

Tentative plans call for a meeting at Buffalo Lake and a tour of the refuge.

Directors also discussed outdoor classrooms for teaching conservation and participation in the Canyon bicentennial celebration.

Board members attending were Marshall Rockwell, chairman, A. R. Friemel, vice chairman, Bob McCasland, secretary-treasurer, and C. V. Conatser. Others attending were A. W. Dalrymple, field representative from the State Soil and Water Conservation Board, and Bill Casteel and Sid Ricks of the Canyon Soil Conservation Service office.

Final award of the contract and issuance of certificates of obligation are proposed to be made on the 8th day of July, 1974, by the Commissioners' Court convened in regular session at its regular meeting place at the County Courthouse.

BIDS shall be submitted in sealed envelopes upon the blank form of proposal furnished. Sealed envelopes shall be marked "BID FOR RANDALL COUNTY OFFICE BUILDING."

PLANS AND SPECIFICATIONS and contract documents may be examined without charge at the office of the County Clerk, Randall County Courthouse, Canyon, Texas. Copies of such instruments may be obtained from VAUGHAN, McMORRIES & ASSOCIATES, at 7811 Amarillo Blvd., West, Amarillo, Texas. Applications for plans and specifications, etc., must be accompanied by a deposit of $200.00 for one set of plans and specifications. Any bidder, upon returning such plans and specifications in good condition, will be refunded his deposit. Any non-bidder, upon returning such plans and specifications in good condition will be refunded one-half his deposit. Deposits will not be returned after ten days following the bid opening.

A cashier's check, certified check, or acceptable bidder's bond, payable to Randall County, Canyon, Texas, in the amount of five percent (5%) of the base bid must accompany each bid as a guarantee that, if awarded the contract, the bidder will promptly enter into a contract with Randall County and execute such bonds as may be required. Checks will be returned to unsuccessful bidders.

THE SUCCESSFUL BIDDER on the project will be required to furnish a performance bond and payment bond, each in the full amount of the contract, written by a responsible surety company authorized to do business in the State of Texas, and satisfactory to the Commissioners' Court as required by Article 5160, V.A.T.C.S. Attention of bidders is also directed to the provisions of Article 5159a, V.A.T.C.S., requiring that not less than the general prevailing rates of per diem wages for work of similar character in the locality where the work is performed shall be paid all laborers, workmen and mechanics employed in the construction of public works.

BIDDERS are expected to inspect the site of the work and to inform themselves of all local conditions, and carefully examine the plans, specifications and other documents. Should a bidder find discrepancies in, or omissions from the plans, specifications or other documents, or should he question their meaning, he should at once notify the Architect in writing seven (7) days prior to submitting any bid, and obtain clarification. Work shall be completed on the Project on or before December 1, 1974. If the work has not been completed by this date, amortization payments as set forth in the specifications shall be paid by Contractor.

NO BIDDER may withdraw his bid for at least fifteen (15) days after the scheduled closing time for receipt of bids.

On the date and time set for the awarding of the contract (July 8, 1974, 2:00 o'clock, P.M.) the County proposes to authorize the issuance of Certificates of Obligation (payable from taxation) in the maximum principal amount of $300,000.00 in payment of all or a portion of the contract price and the contractual obligation it will incur. The successful bidder will be required to accept such certificates in payment of all or a portion of the contract price or assign such certificates to the party with whom the County has made provision for the contractor to sell and assign such certificates at their face value (no accrued interest), and each bidder shall be required to elect on the bid form whether he will accept or assign such certificates.

In case of ambiguity or lack of clarity in stating the contract price, the County reserves the right to consider the most advantageous construction thereof or to reject the bid and to waive formalities.

department has answered 52 rural fire calls since Jan. 1. They have spent 855 man hours on the fires, which have accounted for an estimated loss of $101,750.

Commissioners and city fathers broke new ground last summer when the current fire contract was negotiated. Prior to that time, the county and city had traded services without formal exchange of money.

gardening for the family and Steven said the first year planting produced so much food "we had it running out our ears."

This year the boys tilled and planted properly and they hope their yield will be as good.

The boys admit the garden takes quite a bit of their otherwise leisurely summer time.

"But, in winter it sure does taste good," Steven said.

Mrs. Jaggers cans and freezes much of the garden produce and last year the garden produced enough for friends and family, too.

While the boys are working the large family plot for winter storage, they are also tending a small section of garden for their own purposes. They plan to sell the produce from their small garden later this summer.

Of course, the boys admit, their garden produces a crop they neither welcome nor want.

"If we could eat weeds," Steven said, "we'd never starve."

heating and air conditioning engineers explained to commissioners the systems they planned for inclusion in the project and all noted that they had consciously and studiously tried to shave costs whenever possible.

Prior to the Monday meeting, Vaughan told The News he's talked with building contractors who are interested in the construction project and they seem unaffected by the possibility the annex construction might be illegal.

"The contractors are taking the attitude that some of the news media are doing this to enhance their visibility interest," Vaughan said.

He said the possibility has not diminished the interest of the contractors in the job.

Commissioners heard a complaint from a resident of Rockwell Acres mobile home park that due to poor drainage planning, water backs up under his mobile home after heavy rains.

Commissioners told the resident the drainage was the problem of the land developer, but agreed to do whatever possible and reasonable cost-wise to help him.

They again tabled a plat from Horace Dwight for McCormick Estates in north Randall County.

Dwight failed to show up for the meeting.

headed by Dr. Fred Rathjen of the WTSU history department.

While the official recognition of the local groups as part of the bicentennial fabric might seem to imply they are now eligible for funding for the projects, Guy said the prospect for state or federal funding is dim.

The local bicentennial committee has broken itself down into three subcommittees to concentrate on different areas. One committee, the Heritage Committee, is chaired by Dr. Rathjen. Claire Kuhen chairs the Horizons Committee, and Jane Stephens is chairperson of the Festival Committee.

Other projects being considered and planned by the committees include tracing the trail of Coronado through Palo Duro Canyon, development of a visitors center in Canyon for area landmarks, erection of a monument to Charles Goodnight, first settler in the Canyon area, and development of a sound and light show for the Pioneer Amphitheatre in Palo Duro Canyon depicting the history of the region.

The bicentennial committee's efforts are to climax in 1976.

SUMMER FUN GREETINGS:

PEOPLE ARE COMING and people are going. Summer is for visiting and lazying around.

Members of the Gwyn and Edgar Sellers family are actually living this philosophy. The Sellers are greatly enjoying some very special house guests this month from Venezuela! Gwyn's brother and his wife, Dick and Jolene Polson, along with their youngsters, Val and Robin, are visiting from Anaco. Dick and Jolene spend non-visiting time shopping. Val, the eleven year old hamburger-eater, is doing his thing again this summer. (He does take time out to watch cousin Steve's baseball games.) Seven year old Robin is enjoying French fry eating mostly.

Youngsters being youngsters, and action being the name of the game as far as the youngsters are concerned, the Polsons and the Sellers have been busy swimming, bowling, golfing, baseballing, etc.

Judy Spencer, Gwyn's sister from Louisiana, will add even more excitement (and family-news-catching-up) when she and her sons arrive in Amarillo this week. Hubby Danny will follow next week. (Hopefully everyone won't be "talked out" when he arrives.) The Spencer youngsters, Chris and Shannon, are expected to join in on the young fun things. The adult types are planning to do lots and lots of visiting. Nice to have the Polsons and the Spencers in Gene Howeland!

CHARLENE AND BILL Moore and daughter, Rhonda, have returned from a visiting spree in Fort Worth. Bill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Moore, and Charlene's parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Boyd, all reside in Fort Worth.

The Moores greatly enjoyed "going home to mother and dad" for a little pampering. The group also "did" Six Flags. A visit with son Greg was another important reason for the trip. Greg is staying with the Boyds and working in Fort Worth this summer.

Daughter Gina was treated to a trip to Arkansas by family friends while the Moores were in Fort Worth. The friends have a cabin by the lake close to Manfield. Gina spent most of her time swimming and fishing, catching some real nice fish. Gina's baseball teammates will have her back for a week or so before she's off to summer camp.

SPEAKING OF TEAMMATES, the ones belonging to the sixth grade girls team coached by Mrs. Larry Bays are Janice Wilson, Kristy Ashford, Regenia Turner, Teena Beery, Jana Brooks, Doreen Davee, Robin Yarbrough, Patty Team, Cece Bays, Alice Newsom, Tyra Solbrig, Cheryl Mayfield, Jana Ford and Sonna Winter.

Mrs. Bays is assisted in the coaching field by her husband, and Chris Yarbrough is team mother. These youngsters are having a great time playing ball this summer.

Teammates on the second grade T-ball team coached by Jerry Erdman are Troy Cates, Jay Mendez, Casey Myars, Randy Rackley, Todd Settle, Jay Storlie, Ken Brown, Bobby Sanders, Pat Sparkman, John Clark, Kevin Erdman and Chris Trammell. Mr. Erdman is assisted by Bill Brown.

There were at least sixty hits during a recent game with Western Plateau, with John Hanson, Wayne Couch, Charlie Cox, Steve Wilson and Carl Henry racking up home runs!

THE ALTON STOKES family did some visiting last week. Alton and Betty spent several days in Pampa. Express purpose of the visit was to introduce young Danny to his grandmother. Brothers Steve and Tim went along for some grandparenting, too.

THE FIRST GRADE girl team co-coached by Tonya Holt and Jackie Mayfield recently played Ridgecrest, with Darla Campbell hitting a homer.

In the 20-15 win over Lawndale, Kenneth Drost's and George Schmidt's fifth grade team saw home run hitters in Dena Harp and Tracy Gillis. Tracy again homered in the game with Southlawn, as did Deanna Henwood.

THERE HAVE BEEN some changes made in the teaching staff at Gene Howe for the summer classes. Mrs. Lua Patrick from Canyon Junior High is assisting Mr. Lawless with the math classes. Mrs. Nancy Roth, who has substituted at Gene Howe before, is now assisting Gay Cochran with the reading classes.

Ellen Wilson is instructing in the L/LD classes, with the able assistance of Rhenae Wisniewski. Sarah Hodgin also has a class of her own in the L/LD summer session. Donnie Trim, also from Canyon Junior High, is conducting classes in speech.

The summer school students are really benefiting from the individualized instruction they receive in these classes.

TWO OF THOSE lovely Campbell ladies, Darla and Kelli, jetted to Denton last week to spend some time with Darrell and Dot Wakefield. Their mom, Darlene, is staying home for a while and will join them later. Darlene's mom, Judy Wakefield, should be home from the hospital by the time you are reading this. At latest inquiry, Mrs. Wakefield is doing real well — we send you a great big "Get Well" from Gene Howe Land, Judy!

THE BILL AND Pat Seth family has returned from a marvelous trip to the Grand Canyon. The Seths took their trailer along, and while Bill was attending a seminar for the Bureau of Reclamation, the rest of the Seths took in the canyon in a "grand way." Spending nearly a week there, the Seths became very well acquainted with the lovely weather and the views. (The average time spent by tourists is only three hours, so Pat now feels like a "veteran.")

The burro trips being all booked up, the Seths did a lot of hiking — like they walked from one end of the Canyon to the other. Not all in the same day of course. They hiked up and down Bright Angel Trail; up and down the Hermit Rest Trail; and everywhere else for which they had the needed energy, including every "inch" of the West Rim.

Fortunately, a shuttle bus was handy. Pat put Tim and Chris on the bus every morning, met them at noon with a sack lunch, and let them walk the short trip "home" each evening.

The Seths made it a point to get in on the early morning geological talks; therefore, enabling them to fully appreciate all they saw.

The Seths parked their trailer right outside Gallup on the homeward bound trip. Pat said the wind, dust and dirt was blowing so bad, she thought, "Texas was going to fill up the canyon" before day's end. She felt right at home. Some friends had pulled in a couple of slots down from the Seths, and it wasn't until all had settled that they were identified!

On the way to the Canyon, the Seths left son Bill D in Albuquerque. He then went on to Red River and his summer job at the Star Bar B Que. So, if you are in Red River this summer, be sure to drop by Stars for a bite to eat and to say howdy to Bill D.

The Seths are a true "outdoorsey" family. After being home long enough to wash and to replenish their foodstuffs, they took off to their place at Lake Meredith for several days. Lots of loafing, swimming, fishing and eating contributed to this fun sojourn. Ah, energy!

It's like I told the kids, "Just as soon as I get the elastic replaced at the wrists and ankles in my swim suit, I will, promise, I will go swimming with you." And, that's for tanless sure!

THANKS FOR THE use of the hall. Call 352-6053 with your company, vacation and summer-fun news.

P.S. — ANYONE DESIRING to take the proposed Stretch and Sew class at Gene Howe sure needs to call the school, Dr. Ken Hart, or yours truly, and get your name on the list. This will, hopefully, be an evening class. Should be a lot of fun, as well as informative. Call now, so definite arrangements can be made. After all, learning is the light in our lives!

Father's Day for Robert B. Crooks of Canyon was a real treat with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Crooks of Tallahassee, Florida, visiting in the home along with having all of their own children home for the occasion.

Crooks is manager of Cattletown Feedyard at Hereford. His father is with the agricultural division of the state department in Florida and his mother is with the placement bureau of Florida State University.

While in the Canyon area, the group will tour the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum, see the opening performance of the outdoor musical drama "TEXAS," visit local art galleries, tour area feedlots and see other points of interest including West Texas State University.

On hand for the "father's day steak cookout" were the Robert Crooks' children including seven sons, Stanley of Big Spring, Kenneth of Amarillo, Russ of Dallas, Doug of Dimmitt, and the children of the home, Jimmy, Richard, and Bobby, and daughter, Rene. Also on hand for the event were the daughters-in-law of the Crooks and also their three grandchildren. It was the first time for all of the Crooks children to be together in about four years.

Bill Tirey, right, was awarded a Father's Day certificate for beef by Mrs. Benny Lippold, left, representative of the Golden Spread Cowbelles of Amarillo and Canyon. Preston Alan Tirey, held by his mother, was born June 14.

Buffalo Lake Needs Water

By REBA RAEF

Greetings from Umbarger:

WELL, THE FARTHER we get into summer, the more we realize how sorely we need water in Buffalo Lake. We've had people in the store from several points down state lately who were not aware that the lake is dry. They were very disappointed to find it without water. They did camp there and they all said that they would be happy to pay an admittance fee to get into a place as pretty as the lake property, if it would help to finance a plan to get water back into the lake. So, we need to keep after the right people till we get something done to get some water into the lake.

LAST SUNDAY, JUNE 16, was the Feast of Corpus Christi. At the close of the 8:00 Mass, the Blessed Sacrament, accompanied by the Mass servers, the congregation, the choir and flower girls, was carried in procession to an altar in the parish hall where Benediction was held.

From that altar, the procession went to an outside altar where Benediction was again held, then the procession returned to the church for the closing ceremonies. This is a very beautiful and impressive ceremony.

How about bringing mama and the kids to eat with us and at the same time helping the orphanage at Panhandle, as the entire proceeds go there.

Serving will start at 6:30 for those who like to eat early. The supper will be in the parish hall and cards and dominoes will be played in the Columbus Club hall.

K. E. HINES plans to build several Emperor Clocks after he retires from his position as stationmaster with the Santa Fe Railroad here. In past months, he has undertaken and successfully completed his first clock for his wife.

Hines Builds Chiming Clock

A floor standing clock with three distinct musical chimes was recently completed by K. E. Hines after about 50 hours of diligent work in assembly.

Hines, who is stationmaster for the Santa Fe Railroad depot in Canyon, bought the clock in a kit form and said "you have to follow the instructions to the letter."

The Emperor Clock, Model 300-M has three distinct tunes played by the Whittington, St. Michael and Westminster Chimes which strike every 15 minutes, with 8 on the half hour, 16 chimes on the hour in addition to a Big Ben chime each hour.

The clock case features two doors with brass fittings and the total works of the clock are made of solid brass in West Germany. It has a regular clock dial with a separate moon dial located just above the face of the regular clock which makes its complete revolution every 29½ days.

Measuring a height of 82 inches, the clock case is made of pre-cut wood sections then stained and sealed, according to Mr. Hines. Brass hinges and handles are used on the doors and then glass for the open face doors must be cut to fit by local craftsmen.

The weights must be lifted every 8 days to wind the clock. The three weights, made of brass, weigh 11 pounds, 7-7/10 pounds and 6-6/10 pounds respectively. The large brass pendulum swings from the movement of the clock gear on an arm which extends about 30 inches.

"Another unusual thing about the clock," stated Hines, "is the way it will correct itself every 24 hours if the strike is getting out of time."

The dark stained wood base measures 19½ inches at its widest portion and is 13 inches deep.

After his retirement Hines plans to make a clock similar for each of his grown children including Sondra, Steve and Mike. He will also spend his time collecting and restoring antique furniture during his retirement years.

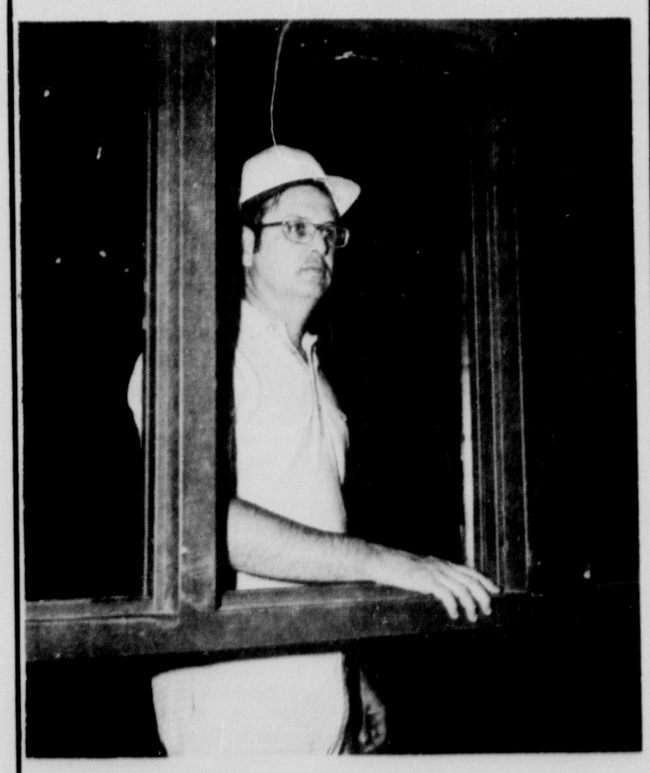
Hawkins Announce Gidget's Birth

Gidget Michelle Hawkins is a new arrival for the David L. Hawkins family at 500 5th Street Canyon.

The young miss was born June 13 at Neblett Memorial Hospital and weighed 4 pounds, 4 ounces measuring 17 inches in length at birth.

The father is employed with Maywood Inc. in Amarillo and the Hawkins have two other children, Roxanne, 4, and David Wayne, 1.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Vestal Rich of Amarillo with Mr. and Mrs. George Boxeman being the paternal grandparents.



Ray Grimes, administrator of Neblett Hospital, stands in the unfinished window of the office of the new Canyon hospital during an inspection Tuesday. The hospital, which is nearing completion, will have 50 beds. Completion is expected this fall and hospital officials hope to be in the building by Jan. 1.

Uniforms Needed For Scouts Here

A uniform bank to help scouts here reduce the expenses involved in scouting has been started for Troop 132 and used uniforms are now being sought.

Cary Magness, scoutmaster of the troop, said used scout uniforms are needed to help begin the bank.

"I feel sure many uniforms have been outgrown or are no longer being worn and could be again used by an active scout," Magness said. "Those with worn knees or elbows will be made into summer uniforms by the troop mothers committee."

Magness said the troop hopes to obtain enough uniforms so that as a scout outgrows his uniform he may trade it in for a larger one.

Persons wishing to donate uniforms are asked to bring them to the Hosea Foster Agency, 1518 5th Ave. Or the uniforms will be picked up if those interested will call Patricia Magness at 655-7993.

Canyon American Legion Baseball Having Better Season

American Legion baseball is doing better than ever in Canyon according to Ken Williams, coach for the Canyon team. The team record now stands at five wins and three losses.

The American Legion team, which uses the Babe Ruth park for all home games, is sponsored by the local American Legion post but money used to support the program comes from local businesses. Tom Lair is the manager for the local team.

In setting the 5-3 record, Canyon has defeated Hooker, Okla. twice and Hereford twice. They have lost to Hooker, Okla. once, Palo Duro and Plainview.

Hitting power for the Canyon team has come from Wayne Pitt, Ed Lair and Ronnie Hicks.

Pitching for the Canyon team are Lair, with a 0-2 record; Scott Keeling, with a 2-0 record; Ken Cooper, with a 2-0 record and Hoss Ratliff, with a 1-0 record.

Sophomores on the team who have added strength this year include Ratliff and Cooper, who are pitchers; Jay, Huey, second base; Greg Taylor, catcher; and Allen Shankles, who plays first base and in the outfield.

Williams is in his first year as coach of the Canyon team. Prior to coming to Canyon, he coached at Tascosa. While with the Tascosa team, they advanced to the national regional games. Williams played for Tascosa prior to becoming their coach. Williams played with the Tascosa team that went to the state tournament twice. He played one year for the WTSU baseball program which has since been dropped by the school.

According to Williams, who is assisted by Keith Keeling, the Canyon team has won more games already this year and the last two years combined. Williams said that he feels the baseball program at Canyon High School and the American Legion program complement one another.

Canyon is a member of the south zone of the 18th district. Members of this zone include Hereford, Palo Duro, Memphis, Caprock, Plainview and Canyon. The top two winners of each zone will play in a double elimination tourney to decide who will advance to the bi-district level. The state tournament will be held in Plainview this year.

American Legion baseball is open to all boys between the ages of 15 and 18. All but two members of the team this year were members of the Canyon High School team this past year.

Members of the team this year include Pitt, Huey, Lair, Cooper, Keeling, Ratliff, Shankles, Taylor, Hicks, Lynn Wright, Ronnie Whitney, Doug Day, David Coronado, Terry Martin and Allen Shankles.

Williams said that he wished to thank Mr. Kleinschmidt for the work that he had done in collecting funds for the program.

Floydada Hurdler Signs With WTSU

Danny Quisenberry, a standout hurdler from Floydada, has signed an athletic scholarship agreement with West Texas State University track coach Bob Kitchens.

Quisenberry ran 14.5 in the 120-yard high hurdles this past spring and a 40.9 time in the 330-yard intermediates. He was third at the Class AA regional meet after capturing the district championship.

The 6-1, 170-pound athlete made big strides in lowering his times each of his three years of varsity competition.

As a sophomore Quisenberry ran 16.2 in the highs and 43.9 in the intermediates. He lowered those times to 14.9 and 42.6 as a junior and dropped them further as a senior.

"The big thing about Danny is the steady improvement he showed each year," said Floydada coach L. G. Wilson. "He gained strength and speed each year. His attitude toward work is good and that should help him in his further hurdling. He has the potential to be outstanding, especially as an intermediate hurdler."

A B-plus student in the classroom, Quisenberry earned all-district honors in football this past fall as a defensive end. He was also an end on offense.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Quisenberry.

Three Canyon boys are participating in the Junior PGA Tour this year. They are, l. to r. Bryan Garner, second place in the 14-15 year old division at West Texas PGA Junior Tour in Farwell and first place with an even par 72 at Southwest Golf Course tourney in Amarillo, Jerry Allen, first place in the 12-13 year old division at Farwell and second place at the Muleshoe Country Club tourney, and Bill Turner, first place in the 16-17 year old division with a 77 at the Farwell tourney. The three will be competing all summer in the Junior PGA tour.

National Junior College Tennis Champ Signs With WTSU

Samuel Nunez, the 1973 National Junior College singles champion, has signed an athletic scholarship agreement with West Texas State University tennis coach David Kent.

Nunez, from Mexico City, was beaten in the National Junior College singles division earlier this month in Florida by the eventual winner in a three-set match. He teamed with Ali Kahn to reach the doubles finals in that same tournament.

The 6-4, 150-pound junior-to-be compiled a brilliant 32-6 record in singles this past spring while playing for Central Texas Junior College in Killeen. Included in his wins was a 6-6, 6-2, 6-4 victory over West Texas State's Dale Corbin. He also downed Graham Whaling of Texas, Baylor's Danny Dobbs and Jerry Garcia of North Texas State.

Nunez and Kahn were 32-8 in doubles this past season. They defeated West Texas State's number one team of Bill Marsh and Steve Johnson, the University of Texas number one team of Whaling and Dan Nelson and the number one North Texas State team of Garcia and Mark Floyd. Central Texas won the national team title for two straight years.

In 1973 Nunez had a 32-3 singles record on his way to the national championship. He captured the Texas Junior College state championship this past spring in singles.

"Samuel is the number one player we needed and had to have in order to continue our fine program," said Kent. "He's a good student and a dedicated tennis player. He is highly skilled and aggressive as both a singles and doubles player."

Nunez plans to play in a number of summer tournaments both in this country and in Mexico before enrolling as an art major at West Texas in the fall.

The recruiting of Nunez completes Kent's signees for the spring. Signed into the Buffalo camp earlier were Todd Reed, state high school champion in singles and doubles from Winfield, Kan., junior college standout Wayne Marsh from Arkansas City, Kan., and four-time Catholic state doubles champion Bobby Kleineche of Galveston.

Kent's Buffaloes won the Missouri Valley Conference championship for the third time in four years this past month in Denton.

Kent signed his four recruits to replace three graduating seniors — Bill Marsh, Dale Corbin and John Phillips. Marsh is the older brother of recent recruit Wayne Marsh.

Members of the team are, l. to r., Kim Wilkinson, Leigh Ann Clement, Melanie Brooks, Penny Christopher and Jim Christopher, coach. The team will be eligible to participate in the AAU area track meet at Hereford June 29, and at the district track meet in Borger July 6. HAPPY NEWS

Miss Happy, Little Miss Contests Set June 27

By MARY NEAL HENRY

THANK YOU FOR eating beef for Father's Day. The 1600 CowBelles of Texas do appreciate it.

You may have noticed the recent article in the Amarillo newspaper about beef cows in a zoo This information may not be too erroneous, because current losses in the cattle industry have caused cattlemen to buy no replacement cattle and even to slaughter cows.

No business man, no matter what business he pursues is able to keep investing money in a business that continues to fail. The producing and selling of beef cattle has been a continuous losing battle for eight months — since the end of the price freeze. The beginning of that movement by the government was the beginning of the end of many cattlemen's life savings, securities, hopes and dreams. Current losses range from $75 to $236. Those do exist who will never return to the cattle industry because they cannot afford to do so or because they do not like the rules of the new game.

Cattlemen have gambled for hundreds of years on the markets, the weather, which includes rain for the grasslands, crops to provide feed, ice storms, freezing blizzards, drought, the death losses, the calf crops, and even brucellosis and other diseases, but they refuse to gamble on government intervention, truckers strike and consumer boycotts.

Beef is a perishable product. When it is finished it is ready to go. There is no holding back beef for a better product. It must move. And if you have tasted grass fattened beef lately, that is good! Beef that is not feed lot finished does taste differently. It isn't your imagination. It isn't as good nor as flavorful nor as tender. Depend on your own palate. Don't take my word for it.

Eat beef because your daily diet requires the protein, vitamins, trace elements, and amino acids that your body needs daily. The writer, Gay Paulley, who wrote about beef cattle in a zoo and everyone eating vegetable protein in the year 2074 forgot to mention how the human body was going to change to utilize that vegetable protein to meet all the necessary body requirements. There is just one way that the body will utilize vegetable protein to the fullest and that way is for the vegetable protein to be fed to cattle, digested, transformed into red meat and cooked properly for your daily diet.

Yes, eat beef daily for your own sake — not because of the woes of the American cattlemen. Take care of your own family properly.

Willie Butler, state publicity chairman, arranged the television appearances of CowBelles.

Happy CowBelles also voted to enter a float in the Canyon parade on June 29. This same float will also appear in two other local parades.

Othella McGehee reported on the state project of beef certificates. These are already available in some banks in the area. We hope to make them available for purchase (to be given as gifts) at all major banks in Texas. Think of it! Beef Gift Certificates!

Mary Jane Miller, LaNelle Todd, and Leona McFarland were appointed a committee to investigate the possibilities of a CowBelle uniform to wear on special occasions when the Happy CowBelles wish to be easily identified.

Happy CowBelles took lists and areas of all surrounding territory to call for help in writing the government about the restraint of meat imports.

KEN HENRY TIED for first in bareback riding at the Hereford Rodeo last week end. He also won the barebacks at the Happy Junior Show. You know that I didn't leave that out on purpose.

Dennis Howell won second in the Happy Junior Show. And, say! that was a good picture of Dennis in last week's paper with his saddle and trophies and jacket and patches and belt buckle — all won in the Tri-State Rodeo Finals. (Dennis sits on his saddle and watches television. After all, you can't put a brand new saddle on a bareback or a bull. If Dennis wasn't such a fine young man and one of my favorites I wouldn't tease him).

HAPPY AND CANYON Rainbow Assemblies have traveled to San Antonio to the Grand Assembly of Rainbow, Order of the Rainbow for Girls. Some of the sponsors who attended were Faye Parker, Willa Jane McManigal, Ruth Mann, Louese White, Jo Hand and Cortez Dowlen. They returned home today, so we will hear all about it.

When in San Antonio, they usually tour the Alamo, Sunken Gardens, zoo (I've seen the San Antonio Zoo so many times, I could probably go through it with my eyes closed) and the museum. Novalene Toles and I were most interested in the mission just outside of town that we visited many years ago. They even had their own mill.

Burglars Foiled In Pharmacy Break-ins

Burglars were foiled in attempts to break into Canyon's two drugstores early Monday.

Canyon police reported that steel bars apparently prohibited entry into the firms by the burglars, believed to be the same in each attempt and also the same ones who have struck one pharmacy here twice before.

The attempts were made between 3 and 4 a.m. Monday on Shell's Pharmacy and Byrd Pharmacy, both on the square in Canyon.

Police Chief Al Stewart said the burlars knocked the door knob off the backdoor of Shell's Pharmacy and then tried to pry open the door with a crowbar. They failed to gain entry.

They broke the glass from a back window at Byrd's Pharmacy but were unable to bend the steel bars on the window.

Stewart said the police department does have suspects in the case and are armed with tire and foot prints of the culprits.

Investigating officers in the cases are Patrolmen Joe Fiola and Tommy Sanford.

HD Council To Meet

The final meeting for the Randall County Home Demonstration Council this season will be held at 2 p.m. Monday, June 24, at the Farm Bureau Building. Meetings for the council will resume in September, according to Mrs. Clarence Howard, council chairman.

Fourteen Rural Accidents Investigated By DPS

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 14 accidents on rural highways in Randall County during the month of May, 1974, according to Sergeant Clint Culp, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in one person killed and seven persons injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first five months of 1974 shows a total of 55 accidents resulting in four persons killed and 47 persons injured.

Time Nearing To Register

The National Teacher Examinations will be administered on July 20, 1974, at West Texas State University, the designated test center.

According to Dr. Kenneth Waugh, director of Testing and Counseling Center, many college seniors preparing to teach and teachers applying for certification, licensure, or those seeking positions in school systems which encourage or require the NTE will take the tests. In addition, the designation of West Texas State University as a test center for these examinations will give prospective teachers in this area an opportunity to compare their performance on the examinations with candidates throughout the country who take the tests, Dr. Waugh said.

All Around The House

Do you buy meat according to its cost per pound? Is the price sticker your only meat buying consideration? If it is, you may be overlooking some better selection criteria — namely, how much you get for your money, the eating quality of the meat, and how much work you have to put into its preparation and cooking. Because all of these factors enter into making a satisfying meat purchase, smart shoppers buy meat according to its cost per serving, USDA quality grade, and how they intend to cook it.

Since the majority of the red meat you buy is beef, let's discuss how you can get the most for your beef buying dollar:

Different beef cuts have different percentage of fat and bone, so each one doesn't necessarily give you the same number of servings per pound. Some cuts with higher costs per pound also give you more servings per pound, making their cost per serving more comparable to those of the lower priced cuts. Since the cost per serving isn't listed on the label however, you may not have considered this. But you should, because it's a more accurate guide to how much you will get for your money.

To compute the cost per serving of any cut, you need to know about how many servings you'll get from a pound of each different retail cut. Here's the approximate number of 3-ounce servings you'll get from an average pound of these following cuts of beef: (information from the National Livestock and Meat Board).

Two Servings Per Pound: porterhouse steaks, T-bone steaks, top loin (club) steaks, rib steaks and roasts, chuck steaks, and blade chuck and arm chuck roasts.

Two and a half Servings Per Pound: sirloin steaks and boneless chuck roasts.

Three Servings Per Pound: rib eye steaks and roasts, tenderloin (filet mignon) steaks, round steaks, flank steaks, sirloin tip roasts, boneless rump roasts, and boneless briskets.

Four Servings Per Pound: ground beef, stewing beef, cubed steak, and liver.

Divide the approximate number of servings per pound into the cost per pound and you'll get the cost per 3-ounce serving for that cut.

Buying according to the cost per serving makes sense. That way you do not buy solely by a cut's price per pound, but rather by how much you get from it.

In the same respect, buying according to the USDA quality grade also makes sense. If the meat you buy bears a USDA quality grade shield, you can be assured of its eating quality — meaning its tenderness, juiciness, and flavor. For a specific cut — sirloin steaks for example — you can expect the following differences among the top three USDA quality grades:

USDA Prime beef offers you the ultimate in tenderness, juiciness and flavor. It has abundant marbling — flecks of fat within the lean — which enhances the flavor and juiciness. It is the highest grade available, and most of the more desirable cuts of this grade are sold to restaurants.

USDA Choice beef is very tender, juicy, and flavorful. It has slightly less marbling than Prime, but is still of very high quality. Choice is the grade most commonly found in supermarkets.

USDA Good beef often pleases thrifty shoppers because it is usually somewhat more lean than Prime or Choice. It is only slightly less tender than Choice, but because it has less marbling, it lacks some of the juiciness and flavor of the higher grades.

While all meat is inspected for wholesomeness, not all of it is federally graded. About 85 per cent of beef sold in supermarkets as steak and roast is graded. Grading is a voluntary service available to the meat industry for a fee. So, if you're concerned about the quality of beef you buy, look for cuts bearing the USDA grade shield.

Some cuts are much easier and quicker to cook than others. And if you're like most of us, your time is valuable, so you've got to spend it wisely. Consider the amount of time and effort you have to put into cooking each cut properly.

Generally, beef cuts can be divided into two groups each with different cooking requirements. The less-tender cuts from "motion" muscles in the shoulder and in the front and hind legs take longer to cook and require moist heat. The more tender cuts from the less-used "support" muscles in the middle of the back take less time to cook and can be cooked with dry heat.

Here's a list of the cooking methods to use for each beef cut:

Dry Heat: (broiling, roasting, panbroiling, panfrying, or over charcoal) tenderloin steaks, porterhouse steaks, T-bone steaks, top loin (club) steaks, rib steaks, sirloin steaks, ribeye steaks, sirloin tip roasts (in top grades only), rump roasts, rib roasts, and ground beef.

Moist Heat: (braising, stewing, pot roasting, cooking in liquid) round steaks, flank steaks, blade chuck steaks and roasts, arm chuck steaks and roasts, stewing beef, corned beef brisket, short ribs, and beef shanks.

Decide how much time and effort you're willing to put into cooking the cut, then select the one best for you. But remember that the more-tender cuts that require the least cooking time are almost always more expensive. So, you've got to decide whether low price or less cooking time is more important.

These three considerations are some of the most important considerations that wise beef buyers should be aware of, but there is still more you can learn about buying beef.
